

CHICKS

IN THE STICKS

Nurturing your sense of place

Are you passionate about your patch? Keen to meet like-minded women who share a connection to agriculture and the environment? It's time for the North Central CMA's third Chicks in the Sticks event!

When: Saturday 28 November 2015

Time: 11.00 am – 4.00 pm

Dress: Garden party frock, gumboots and native flora accessory

Cost: Free event for women in north central Victoria (drinks at bar prices – cash only)

Where: 686 Cobb and Co Road, Carlsruhe, Victoria 3537

Transport: A return bus will be available for event guests from Bendigo, Castlemaine and Kyneton – ensure you book a seat when your RSVP *seating limited

RSVP: Places are limited and book out fast. Contact the North Central CMA on (03) 5448 7124

Bring along your best friend, mother, sister or colleague to what will be another incredible event. Your afternoon will begin with drinks and a tour along the Campaspe River learning about river restoration, threatened woodlands, and the areas rich cultural heritage, all set against the stunning backdrop of the historic Degraes Mill.

Your tour will be followed by a delicious long table lunch served on the lawn overlooking the river. The keynote address will be delivered by 2015 Victorian Rural Women's Award Winner and owner of Mt Alexander Fruit Gardens, Katie Finlay. Katie will share her heart-warming story about balancing farming, sustainability and personal wellbeing.

Macedon Ranges Shire Mayor, Jennifer Anderson will be your MC for an event that will showcase the achievements of women connected to their surroundings. 2015 Chicks in the Sticks will delight you, inspire you and empower you to continue nurturing your sense of place and the landscapes most important to you.

